

Three Nights in Bangkok Gluten Free Escape – May 2007

Bangkok is a city rich in history with a vivid local culture, superlative shopping, world-class restaurants and dynamic day and night-life. Suiting all tastes and lifestyles, fast-paced Bangkok rarely sleeps, boasting top class accommodation and an endless list of activities to suit all.

The Three Nights in Bangkok Gluten Free Escape will depart May 2007 staying at the Royal Orchid Sheraton Hotel & Towers situated on the eastern bank of the Chao Phraya River. Here is the perfect base from which to enjoy the many sights of Bangkok including:

- a longboat tour through the winding river canals catching a glimpse of the serene and simple lifestyle of riverbank dwellers
- delighting in a colourful, fun-filled elephant and monkey show
- a peaceful and spiritual tour through the city's various temples
- indulging in a Thai cooking class or
- embarking on a day of shopping for a variety of Thai silks, jewellery, pottery, handicrafts and antiques.

Whatever your style, you will find something that appeals in Bangkok!

Special gluten free menus will be available at a variety of restaurants making dining out simple and hassle-free. Why not try traditional Thai cuisine at Supatra House Restaurant or travel to Sirocco Bar and Restaurant at the top of the State Tower to indulge in a few cocktails and an exhilarating 270 degree view of Bangkok.

These are merely a few of Bangkok's endless possibilities. If you are interested in joining us or require a detailed itinerary please fill in the expression of interest form below or alternatively email or call us on info@clevents.com or 07 3892 3665.
